ANZGOG MEMBER RECOGNITION AWARDS 2027

NOMINATION FORM – Deadline Monday 15 February 2027.

You are invited to nominate a colleague or trial site/team for an ANZGOG 2027 Recognition Award. This is our way of acknowledging members and sites that make an impact on ANZGOG's research.

The successful Award recipients will be announced at the ANZGOG 2027 Annual Scientific Meeting on Thursday 22 April at the conference dinner to be held at the Adelaide Oval, South Australia.

Please note a new form must be used for each person or site you nominate.
You can nominate a colleague for multiple Awards.

Submit your nominations by email (PDF attachment) to Heshani.nesfield@anzgog.org.au by Monday 15 February 2027.

Tick the relevant Award for this nomination:

☐ Michael Friedlander AM Award - Recognises an emerging early career researcher*.

* An early career researcher refers to someone within 10 years of receiving a PhD or Professional Qualification Letters.

☐ ANZGOG Chair's Community Volunteer Award- Identifies an outstanding community volunteer, who has gone above and beyond to ensure that our messages spread to those who can benefit most.

☐ Clinical Trial Achievement Award - Notes contribution to ANZGOG over time through participation, or leadership, in clinical/pre-clinical trial activities. Someone who has been a stalwart member, responsible for ensuring that gynaecological cancer research has remained on track.

☐ Research Pioneer Award - Breaking new ground or introducing new ways of thinking for clinical or preclinical research. A ground-breaking researcher who represents what you think is the forefront of how gynaecological research should be designed to make a difference for people with a lived experience of gynaecological cancer.

☐ Outstanding Clinical Trial Site – A trial team who are advocates for ANZGOG studies and represents our shared vision and values. The site works to an excellent quality standard in keeping with expectations of the National Clinical Trials Governance Framework and will be able to demonstrate this in the submission.
